Don't get de-railed by other options, Tri-State Bible Camp will help you get on the Right Track in the Summer of 2012!

With this summer full of competitions, swimming, tubing, rafting, great messages and so many other activities, each camper will need to move full speed ahead to get as much from the week as possible. On the rails of competition, each camper will look to propel their team forward as they fight their way to the lead in each competition. It will take all of the steam they can muster, since each game will be engineered for maximum enjoyment!

All Aboard for the best week of your summer! The anticipation and excitement are building and summer camp at Tri-State Bible Camp will not disappoint!

Family Camp Swimming Policy

Please be advised, combined family swim times are scheduled each day throughout the summer family camps for a period of about 2 hours. During the combined family swim times, both men and ladies are expected to wear a dark T-Shirt (please no tank tops or sleeveless shirts). Men are expected to wear a boxer type swim suit that extends to the knee or dark knee length shorts; women are expected to wear knee length shorts over their swimsuit. If you have any questions in regard to this policy, please call the camp.

Dress Standards

Ladies may wear culottes, knee-length shorts or skirts, slacks or jeans that are not tight. Bare mid-riffs, low-cut necklines, sheer blouses, tank tops, and tight-fitting tops are not permitted. Swimsuits must be modest one piece and must be covered to and from the pool.

Men may wear jeans or knee-length shorts. No tank tops should be worn. Swimsuits must be boxer style, and men are to wear a shirt to and from the pool and on the rafting trip.
